

Legends

"THE UK'S FINEST GAY HOTEL"

Legends Hotel is a hip, friendly, vibrant gay hotel, bar & club in the most colourful city in Europe!

Legends is right in the centre of Brighton, just minutes from the pier and close to the upmarket Lanes shopping & entertainment Quarter and within minutes of the funky North Laine Quarter. With a fantastic selection of rooms, many with stunning sea views, Legends is a base where you can relax or be part of the hustle and bustle on your doorstep. Our friendly staff are there to help you have a great time, between us we have a wealth of local knowledge and we are happy to offer advice on things to do and see in our wonderful city.

Legends Bar, Terrace & The Basement Club are also within the hotel complex. Legends Bar is the best placed gay bar in Brighton, just high enough to afford stunning sea views.

Big wide windows open up onto a large terrace making Legends a great place to sip a 'Nespresso' coffee, enjoy a drink, a bite to eat or just kick back, relax and enjoy the panoramic sea views whatever the time of day. In the evening Legends is a sophisticated, vibrant, relaxed friendly bar and then a late night bar into the early hours. If clubbing/dancing is your thing then get down to The Basement Club; a unique, sexy and gorgeous subterranean nightclub. You'll find great music played by a diverse range of DJs who have played at some of the Europe's most famous gay venues.

Need reliable Wi-Fi? Legends is the fastest tested hotel Wi-Fi in Brighton, confirmed by  hotelwifitest

Whatever you are looking for Legends offers a warm welcome to all, so come stay a while...

hetro friendly ☿

<http://www.legendsbrighton.com>

Haemosexual, supporting Brighton's LGBT community and businesses

© Haemosexual