

Three Jolly Butchers

We are in central Brighton, close to Brighton Station and in the North Laines quarter.

We are proud to be a traditional cosy friendly pub;
Good people serving good beers and good food to good people. How good is that?

New menu now available, here.

Our cosy Snug is one of the very few areas for private hire in central Brighton - whether for grown-ups having a private dinner party, children having a birthday party (but bring your own adults!) or office parties for the after-work crowd.
